Professional News

- 1) Problems with creating World Class Universities in India: An analysis of the four-year performance in the three world rankings of universities, throws up 48 universities from India comprising 37 public and 11 private universities with a wide margin in the rank positions of the public and private universities. As a result, the top 20 universities have only three private universities and too at close to the bottom. Clearly, the odds are highly stacked in favour of the public universities and thereby commenting on the fact that the very idea of declaring an equal number of public and private universities as IoE was essentially flawed. If the goal was to enable universities to attain world class status, the nation would have greatly benefited by declaring those that have been consistently ranked higher in the world rankings. <https://www.dnaindia.com/analysis/column-problems-with-creating-world-class-universities-in-india-2661226>
- 2) SET Exam pattern to change in 2019 : PUNE: The paper pattern for the State Eligibility Test (SET) will undergo changes from the next year. There will be two papers instead of three and the total marks will be reduced to 300 instead of 350. The next SET examination for Assistant Professors will be scheduled in February or March 2019 by Savitribai Phule Pune University (SPPU) for candidates in Maharashtra and Goa. The changes in the SET paper pattern are in line with the national exam which came into effect from this year.
- 3) The importance of school education in child development: The children of today are gearing up to become adult citizens of tomorrow. The growth is parallel to the future of our country, reflected through quality of the present education system. A school must stimulate curiosity in the young, impressionable minds and equip them with tools to be better human beings.

It is widely accepted that the learning process is instrumental in shaping one's personality and the way he/she deals with situations of life. The shift of thoughts from bookish knowledge to knowledge of life, in schools, has brought forth a sea of change. People have warmed up to the idea of education being the key to a well-rounded development instead of just a mean to acquire degrees and monetary success in life. Education must facilitate the cultivation of a healthy thought process and groom our cognitive abilities. In the present competitive world, education is a basic necessity for human beings after food, clothes and shelter. School education must focus on the following aspects, which contribute immensely to the development of the young minds as they step into adulthood. <https://www.educationworld.in/the-importance-of-school-education-in-child-development/>

Leadership and Management in Libraries

Library administrators and managers at all levels deal with day to day challenges every day with their users as well as the staff working in the library and/ or in the other departments of the organization. To meet such challenges professionals must develop their leadership capacity. In today's digital scenario where the information is available on a click of a button, the demand of leaders in Library sector is increasing. To coordinate and to transform effective and efficient services to the clients/ users it becomes essential for the professionals to develop their managerial skills and update their knowledge in respect to today's digital world. Leadership skills are required at all levels of the profession, from the top, through to professional staff who has been called upon to lead a team or to take a supervisory role. Many organizations, as well as the library professionals, pride themselves on encouraging leadership skills in their staffs and themselves throughout their employment levels. Now the challenges for the library professional are not only we do need to recruit librarians, we need to recruit leaders to our profession as well. We need real leaders if our libraries of the future are to thrive and grow.

1) ICDL2019 : TERI in collaboration with multiple government, corporate and private organizations is organizing the 6th edition of ICDL on the theme Digital Transformation for an Agile Environment. In every 3 years, ICDL conference was held with contemporary topics which have global relevance with localized focus. It has gathered digital luminaries across the globe, visionary policy makers, major corporates and meticulous learners at a single collaborative platform for shared knowledge and benefits. ICDL has produced specific and implementable recommendations in Government and civil society, which had helped Indian digital library communities to develop skills, shape their knowledge and reach out to international collaborations. ICDL provides an excellent platform where Government and Private bodies have jointly participated to keep this movement alive and draw the maximum benefits out of it. Further to this, ICDL 2019 has identified Industry 4.0 as one of the key areas where digital transformation is undergoing a paradigm shift. In order to achieve SDGs, digital disruptions, application of analytics, artificial intelligence and IoT applications are taking place in manufacturing and service oriented industries in many processes. The other major focus of ICDL is always being exploring new challenging areas in contemporary development and bridge the digital divide thus created. In the past years, ICDL emphasized on digital library development, preservation and access, and knowledge management. Digital Transformation for an Agile Environment (ICDL 2019) organised by TERI : The Energy and Resources Institute at India Habitat Centre Complex, New Delhi from 06-08 November 2019.

National Seminar on Relevance of Five Laws of Library Science in Digital Era

Indian Library Association organised One Day National Seminar on Relevance of Five Laws of Library Science in Digital Era on 14th September, 2019 at Pragati Maidan, New Delhi. The seminar witnessed the presence of Shri Ashutosh Bhatnagar, Executive Director, Jammu and Kashmir Study Circle as Chief Guest and Shri Pratapanand Jha, Director, Cultural Informatics, Indira Gandhi National Centre of Arts as Guest of Honour. The Seminar witnessed presence of more than 200 delegates from various disciplines.

The seminar started with the elaboration about Indian Library Association by Dr. Akash Singh, Assistant Librarian, NLU, Delhi. He elaborated that the Indian Library Association (ILA) is one of the Premier and oldest Library and Information Science Association in India. Since its inception it is working hard for the promotion of Library Movement in India. The Association is also making lot of efforts in the promotion of University, College, School, Public and Government Libraries in India. In a changed environment, association is giving lot of importance for the application of ICT in Indian libraries for which the association is organizing various programmes such as conferences/Seminars/workshops in the field of library automation and networking, it also organizes the training programmes for the design and development of digital libraries in India. All these years ILA has been given prime importance in all the programmes of Government of India related to Library and Information Science field. The seminar was initiated with paying tribute to Padama Shri Shri S.R. Ranganathan by the dignitaries and delegates presented during the programme.

Dr. Pardeep Rai, Senior Vice President, Indian Library Association delivered welcome address to the august gathering. He extended his gratitude towards dignitaries and delegates presented during the seminar. Shri Patapanand Jha, Director, IGNCIA in his addressed informed that his team has done rigorous work in development of database to preserve cultural heritage of India. He echoed that Americans follow the model of IGNCIA for preserving heritage resources in United States of America. The Chief Guest of the Seminar, Shri. Ashutosh Bhatnagar, Executive Director, Jammu Kashmir Study Centre elaborated the value of information in decision making process. He extended his views that the information available to citizens is the only source of development of a nation. He further elaborated that the burning of Library of Nalanda which took six months, was the biggest loss to humanity. The vote of thanks was extended by Dr. O.N. Chaubey, General Secretary, Indian Library Association. The seminar witnessed a panel discussion by a distinguished expert panel comprising Dr. D.V.
