4th Webinar On “Reimagining the Libraries for the 21st Century: Learning From the COVID-19 Crisis”

Keeping in mind the legacy of spreading information and knowledge in this unprecedented pandemic, Indian Library Association organized its 4th Webinar in the Webinar-cum-Lecture series. The topic for the webinar was “Reimagining the Libraries for the 21st Century: Learning From the COVID-19 Crisis”. The special lecture was delivered by Padma Shri Prof. (Dr.) Dinesh Singh, Hon’ble Chancellor, K.R. Mangalam University and former Vice Chancellor, University of Delhi, on May 14, 2020 11.00 AM. The webinar received an overwhelmed response over the web wherein e-certificates were also provided to the participants.

Dr. Priya Rai, Head, Justice TPS Chawla Libray, NLU and President, AILL in her opening remarks welcomed Prof. (Dr.) Dinesh Singh, Hon’ble Chancellor, K.R. Mangalam University and former Vice Chancellor, University of Delhi and provided a brief introduction about him. Dr. Rai also presented a brief introduction about the ILA Webinar Series and expressed gratitude to the esteemed guests and participants gathered around the web to attend the webinar.

Dr. Pardeep Rai, Sr. Vice President, Indian Library Association (ILA) gave a very precise introduction about the esteemed speaker and mentioned about his various achievements and activities. He informed about this webinar cum lecture series is being undertaken to enhance the learning skills among the users during this pandemic COVID -19.

Padma Shri Prof. (Dr.) Dinesh Singh, Hon’ble Chancellor, K.R. Mangalam University and former Vice Chancellor, University of Delhi, delivered the special address. He pronounced that due to this unprecedented crisis all around the world, several libraries are closed, however the role libraries and library professionals can’t be ignored. He highlighted that this is the time to look back and introspect about our inner-self and this crisis allows human being to discover themselves. In his special address he showered his vast experiences about the libraries and its uses. He emphasized that the lessons from history can be grasped and poured into the reimagining of future libraries. He very clearly explained that the ethos comes from a virtual library which can reshape the Indian knowledge destiny which has the legacy of Vedas, Upnishads and renowned various epics. He very much appreciated the role of books and epics such as Bhagwad Gita in human life and history.

He put forward his views that reimagining libraries for future perspectives must be based on traditional knowledge. He very well mentioned that ethos of libraries should be “let noble thoughts come to us from every direction”. He put forth a valuable suggestion of establishment of ‘Smart Libraries’, such library should be a place of joy, a great place of social interaction where interchange of brainstorming ideas should take place. He also suggested establishing and developing ‘Village libraries’ which can play a vital role in the growth and development of rural India.

Prof. (Dr.) B.D. Kumbar, President, ILA delivered the presidential remarks. He mentioned that ILA is privileged to have Padma Shri Prof. (Dr.) Dinesh Singh on ILA platform in the webinar series and it is indeed an honour for library science fraternity to listen respected sir on the topic Reimagining the Libraries for the 21st Century: Learning From the COVID-19 Crisis. Dr. Kumbar mentioned that librarian and library professionals need to create vibrant demography if they are given such chance. He also requested to stakeholders in the field through ILA platform that public libraries must be developed and encouraged in rural India and also pronounced that ILA is in the close connection with Raja Ram Mohan Roy Library Foundation (RRRLF) in this regard.

Question answer round was also taken, where various participants raised their queries which were very precisely answered by our esteemed speaker.

Concluding remarks and vote of thanks was delivered by Dr.O.N. Chaubey, General Secretary, ILA.
